Reviewers Love Boone

“One Incredible Dog! Boone, second in the One Incredible Dog! Series, is an admirable work created by writer Williams and illustrator Friedman to encourage children’s awareness for how a Search and Rescue dog may spend a typical day. Crafted in an easy reading, child friendly style filled with well written prose and child appealing illustrations One Incredible Dog! Boone is a publication sure to please its target audience of young listeners/readers.”

—Molly Martin, The Midwest Book Review

“I like the book Boone because it tells about Boone and what he does to help people. I think it’s cool that dogs can find someone who is missing. In the book it tells that Boone finds criminals and even missing people that are lost and don’t know where they are going. Boone is a great dog and a fantastic mystery solver. This is my favorite book.”

—Kellie, Age 8

“Boone’s dedication and gentleness are penciled into every picture by the talented artist Judith Friedman....The very last page provides more information along with a list of resources about Search and Rescue dogs.”

—Vi Gommer, Wordsmith Shoppe

“A great book for children who are dog lovers – or for those who aren’t....Early readers will be able to read this very reassuring and educational book for themselves.”

—Carole McDonnell, Preschool Entertainment

“This is an excellent book for young readers....Each story is interesting and will capture the young reader’s attention while at the same time they are being taught a very important lesson about search and rescue dogs.”

—Nancy Eaton, Bestsellersworld

“Boone is a heartwarming story for anyone who wants a dog or has one. I think everyone should have a copy of this incredible book. The picture are wonderful and I love the story!”

—Brianna, Age 8

“Combined with the author’s careful writing are delightful illustrations by Judith Friedman, an award-winning illustrator... The flawless charcoal drawings of Boone and his bright green collar and leash will spark both the memory and imagination of any child.”

—Joanne Zerkel, The Star
