

Kathleen Kubik travels extensively and especially enjoys smaller, full-sail cruises similar to the one featured in this book. When not researching or writing, she can be found at the local bridge club or supporting the good work of the Guiding Eyes for the Blind and the North Shore Animal League. Kathleen lives with her husband, Richard, and their dogs in West Nyack, New York and at their seashore home in Montauk, New York.